DISCIPLESHIP & TEACHING PASTOR

Reports to: Executive Pastor
Employee Classification: Pastoral

THE WORK:

- A champion of Mosaic's mission and values through creating pathways that help people experience Jesus Centered lives.
- A person taking ownership for developing and leading adult discipleship programming and environments that are transformational, both for Mosaic and for the communities around us.
- A person who serves as champion and visionary for Mosaic life groups, discipleship tracks, membership, equipping classes, and adult ministries.
- A pastor who personally discipled and multiplies, with a track record of being a multiplying leader by leading through others.
- Guides those who are new to Mosaic to understand God's story, our story, and their story, helping foster pathways to ministry roles and life giving relationships.

Overview:

This isn't just a job, it's a calling. At Mosaic our staff are risk-taking, spiritual contributors who work hard, honor God with integrity, fight for unity, serve with humility and spread joy with our attitudes. We are mutually broken individuals who find restoration in Christ and are passionate about helping restore our community and the world. Our life and our work are focused around one thing: helping people experience a Jesus centered life!

The Discipleship & Teaching Pastor is responsible for identifying and developing Life Group and Adult Equipping Class leaders as well as creating vision and giving leadership to all other areas of Discipleship at MOSAIC. Discipleship is one of the first things this person thinks about when he/she wakes up in the morning, and one of the last things he/she thinks about when their head hits the pillow at night. The Discipleship & Teaching Pastor gets to help guide those who are new to Mosaic to understand God's story, our story, and their story, helping foster pathways to ministry roles and life giving relationships.
